

Co-funded by the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

610427-EPP-1-2019-1-EE-EPPKA2-CBHE-JP
(2019-2023)

SYLLABUS OF THE UPDATED COURSE

HISTORY OF UKRAINE AND UKRAINIAN CULTURE (BA LEVEL)

Prepared by the MultiEd team

The European Commission's support for the production of this publication does not constitute an endorsement of the contents, which reflect the views only of the authors, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein

Co-funded by the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Summary of the updated course under the umbrella of the MultiEd project # 610427-EPP-1-2019-1-EE-EPPKA2-CBHE-JP
“History of Ukraine and Ukrainian Culture”, BA
Horlivka Institute for Foreign Languages SHEI Donbas State Pedagogical University
Master/bachelor level	Bachelor level
Branch of knowledge	01 Education / Pedagogy 03 Humanities
Specialization	014.02 Secondary education (Language and Literature (English)) 035.04 Philology. Germanic Languages and Literatures (translation inclusive) (English)
Qualifications	Teacher of English, Philologist, Translator
Form of education	Full-time
Status of the discipline	Compulsory course
Course prerequisites	English level A2-B1 or higher
Semester of the course	1
Course Volume	3 ECTS 90 hours 36 hours of class work 54 hours of self-study and consultations
Form of final control	Credit (passed - A, B, C, D, E, failed - F)
Course language	English
Developers	Kontsur, Viktoriia, Candidate of History, Associate Professor, Horlivka Institute for Foreign Languages SHEI DSPU
Brief Course Description (up to 2000 symbols)
The course presents a survey of Ukraine in terms of History, Sociology, Politics, and Culture. However, it is aimed not only at delivering information on the key events and aspects of Ukrainian history and culture but, more importantly, at giving practical knowledge crucial for successful intercultural communication. Students are also taught to critically assess the content of provided texts and video materials. Through lectures, practices, written assignments, class discussion, and engaged methodology, students explore some of the theoretical issues that provide them with in-depth knowledge on Ukrainian history and culture.
New, Updated, and Modified Components
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A. Key Terms and Notions B. Competencies C. Learning Outcomes D. Course Topics E. Teaching and Learning Methods F. Literature and References
A. Key Terms and Notions

Ukraine, history, political system, culture, nation.

B. Course Aim

The aim of the discipline is to form professional philological, intercultural, linguistic, and socio-cultural competencies.

Learning Objectives:

- to provide a higher level of knowledge and development of thinking on the basis of factual material learned in secondary school;
- to develop skills of intercultural communication in English-speaking environment;
- to further develop the students' critical thinking skills.

C. Competencies

Generic competencies	ability to communicate in a second language; capacity to learn and stay up-to-date with learning; ability to work in a team; ability to use digital information and communication technologies in professional activities; ability to appreciate and respect diversity and multiculturalism.
Specific competencies	capacity to build interdisciplinary connections; ability to use different forms and types of communication in educational activities; ability to interact with communities (at local, regional, national, European and global levels) to develop professional knowledge and professional competencies.

D. Learning Outcomes

HU 1	to demonstrate in-depth knowledge in Ukrainian history and culture
HU 2	to review, analyze, and evaluate the context, causes, and effects of major political and socio-cultural events in Ukraine
HU 3	to debate the ethical issues of intercultural communication in practice
HU 4	to carry out the analysis of the ethnographic realities of Ukrainian society
HU 5	to freely conduct discussions within the subject of the course.